D&R CAS Industries What is the True Nature of Marketing?

Marketing Solutions

Brother Industries, Ltd. (President, Yoshiaki Kuroki) has won a German international award 'IF Communication Design Award 2010' (hereinafter 'IF communication design award')) in the control panel designed for 'Twinjet M 450' is a Brother's high end printing machine with embroidery capabilities.

The IF communication design award was created and judged by the 22 international juries. This year, the award was given to some of the most advanced international design competitions which unite the best graphic and user interface designs.

Brother already received 'iF Product Design Award' on its products such as 'Twinjet P', for its exterior appearance. However, this is the first time for Brother to win 'iF communication design award' which competes in design of user interface as well as products.

Brother thinks it is very important to reflect design of user interface as well as products to our users.

Brother will participate actively in the internationally authorized design award competitions such as iF design award, and continue to strive improving design and usability for customers.

Our goal is to play our part to help build a society where sustainable development can be achieved by continuously considering the environmental impact of all aspects of our business operations.

With an outward looking perspective, Brother has decided to establish a new company in Hangzhou, which is one of the national high tech development zones in China in order to enhance its capability to develop software.
